School Board Asks for 7 More Acres

GRIFFING SITE INSUFFICIENT

Tyrrell Park Is Asked by Board

PETITION LOT OWNERS

Decision Indicates Big Ultimate Program, Belief

Seven additional acres for the site for the proposed school in Griffing Residential park, bringing the total amount of school land in the addition up to 12 acres, are sought by the Port Arthur Independent school district, officials announced late today.

The additional land is divided into plots located in front of the 5-acre tract originally set aside for a school site, L. B. Abbey, secretary of the school board, said.

Petition Owners

Each is known as Tyrrell Park and if two-thirds of the Griffing Park residential owners will agree to convey these tracts to the school, the present site, will be connected with them, giving a total of 12 acres in the school tract, he said.

Petitions to property owners in the park, the consent to conveying Tyrrell park to the school board are placed in the Merchants National and First National banks, the Port Arthur Finance company, and Tyrrell-Combs Realty company's offices, Abbey said.

He urged that these property owners sign these papers at their earliest convenience.

Would Close Drives

Another petition to the county commissioners court, asking that the Griffing addition, be closed to give the school property an unbroken line from the north line of the original 5-acre tract to the southern boundary of the Tyrrell park also has been forwarded, Abbey said.

In event the school board is successful in securing the increased acreage, the proposed school building will be built on the tract now sought, Abbey said, and the back part of the site, comprising about eight acres, will be turned into a playground and school park.

RETAILERS WAR ON HOT CHECKS

Posting Suggested, But No Action Taken

That some definite action tending toward the curbing of the passing of worthless checks is one of the big needs of local merchants was the consensus of opinion expressed by the Credit Men's association during their meeting yesterday noon in the Plaza hotel.

The discussion of bad checks filled the greater part of the meeting, and it was brought out during the conference luncheon that numerous merchants here favored the posting of worthless checks on bulletin boards in their windows. The organization, however, while favoring such action, took no definite steps concerning the discussion.

The meeting was declared to be the best one of the organization has had since it was first banded together, per cent of the members present yesterday.

Buttons to Tell Their Own Story

The buttons are beautiful. And the recipient would need to tell the world he is an expert fisherman because the button will tell its own story.

Any member of the Tarpon Club who captures the elusive fish under the rules of the club will be awarded one to wear in his button hole. The buttons otherwise may not be worn.

The trophy is of solid gold. In the center, in relief against a black enamel background is a tiny replica of the silver king of the seas.

The rules being drafted by the committee of which George M. Craig is chairman are being modeled in part after those of the famous Tuna Club of Avalon, Cal.

They govern particularly the tackle used and manner in which tarpons must be captured by Tarpon Club members before they can receive one of the attractive buttons, which have already arrived, and have been inspected by the membership.

IMPORTS TOTAL 97 P.C. OF WHOLE

Customs Office Issues Annual Report

DISTRICT STANDS UP

Ports Compare Favorably With Others of Nation.

Port Arthur's annual imports of exports exceed by $51,000,000 those of the other ports of Sabine combined.

This port's 1923 imports represent 97 per cent of all imports into the Sabine district, and 61 per cent of the district's total exports were from Port Arthur, according to the figures issued in the U. S. customs report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923, issued today.

Imports, $11,429,480

Values of imports for the district during the past 12 months totaled $11,757,434, of which total, Port Arthur's were $11,429,480, the report states. Exports from all of the Sabine district ports, amounting to $70,610, and of this amount Port Arthur's exports represent $40,398,220, the report shows.

Other imports for the year are shown as follows:

Sabine, $22,406; Orange, $70,417; and Beaumont, $22,413.

Exports of the other ports are Sabine, $4,486,131; Orange, $2,573,177; and Beaumont, $13,247,087.

Not only in the values of the imports and exports, but in the number of ships, entering and clearing the district ports during the past fiscal year Port Arthur takes the lead, the customs report shows.

386 Foreign Ships Here

Of the 501 vessels entering the district from foreign ports, not including those that came by way of the Gulf of Mexico, 386 foreign ships cleared from Port Arthur; 21 at Sabine; 24 at Orange; and 69 at Beaumont, it is stated.

Clearance from Sabine (district ports for foreign ports direct) numbered 574, and of this number, 236 cleared from Port Arthur; 75 from Sabine; 28 from Orange; and 75 from Beaumont. These clearances are exclusive of those filed with customs officials by vessels that stopped at other American or foreign ports, customs officials pointed out.

Customs vessels aside from those operating under license for coastal trade, entering the Sabine district ports numbered 370. Of these, 255 cleared at Port Arthur; 23 at Sabine, 25 at Orange; and 57 at Beaumont. The customs report shows that of the total 239 vessels clearing from the district ports and going coastwise, 130 cleared Port Arthur; 12 at Sabine, 15 at Orange and 73 at Beaumont.

31 Vessels Sailed

Vessel sales in the district during the year numbered 31, while 125 vessels either took out new documents, or renewed their old ones, and 49 vessels renewed their documents in the district, the customs report shows.

While Port Arthur came second in the number of ships' export declarations taken out during the year, numbering 2400, this is explained by the fact that one declaration is issued for each variety of merchandise to each and every shipper, customs officials said. For example if a shipper sent a million feet of lumber, he makes a single declaration, but if 10 shippers send ten shipments, then one declaration for each of the 10 must be made out.

Of the 3400 shippers' export declarations issued, Port Arthur had 1530; Beaumont 2291; Sabine 95; and Orange 255.

There has been a slight reduction in collections for 1923, Gunter explained, this reduction working under the department of commerce. It is partly the result of a decrease in Mexican trade and partly because a (Turn to Page 2 Column 2)

LA FOLLETTE TO RULE CONGRESS?

Johnson's Election to Senate Gives Him Whip Hand

ANTI-HARDING RALLY

Fusionist Chief to Dictate Balance of Power

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The election of Magnus Johnson, farmer-laborite, to the Minnesota seat in the senate, will make La Follette the biggest single power in the next congress.

Senator Brookhart Sees Election of Ford Unless Harding Ceases Speeches

NEW YORK, July 17.—A demand that President Harding call immediately an extra session of congress to pass a measure for relief of the American farmers was voiced today by Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa, who has just returned to this country from a visit to Soviet Russia.

The election of Magnus Johnson as United States senator for Minnesota was, Brookhart said, a sign to the republican bosses that the people of this country now mean to "do things."

"If President Harding makes three more speeches such as his 'three one's,' he said, 'Henry Ford will be elected president of the United States in 1924 by a majority of ten million.'" congress and strengthen the rebellion against the Harding administration on the eve of the presidential election.

This is the interpretation placed on the victory of Johnson by the farm bloc in the senate and house today.

Heads, Political Empire

Beaten down by the republican party during the war until he stood as a lone figure against the world, Senator La Follette, individualist and progressive, now has built himself a virtual political empire in Washington, where he will hold the balance of power between the opposing groups.

The farm bloc "chieftains" claim Johnson was elected on a La Follette program.

Five Major "Planks"

This means a drive will be inaugurated in the December congress to: Repeal the Espionage Law, so that lower freight rates will be provided for the farmer.

Revision of the Fordney-McCumber tariff.

Government marketing of foodstuffs to guarantee to the farmer a living wage.

Revision of the federal reserve system, further control of the packers, abolition of supreme court decisions by a majority vote.

TWO CHILDREN HURT IN RUNAWAY AUTO

GEORGETOWN, Texas, July 17.—A peculiar accident occurred here when Scott Montgomery drove home in his car and left it in gear while he was at lunch.

The two children, Scottie, 6 years old, and Mabel, 3 years old, got into the machine to play. One of them stepped on the starter and the car was off at full speed. The little boy grabbed the steering wheel and made a desperate effort to drive the car, but did not understand how to stop it. After running wild some distance the car crossed a sidewalk and came to a stop against a tree.

The little girl was thrown half way through the windshield and sustained a fractured throat and cheek, requiring several stitches to close. Scottie escaped with a bruise on the head. The car was wrecked.

TO STOP DRIVING IN NECHES PARK

Council Acts When Women Cite Children's Danger

Protest against driving automobiles in Port Neches park filed with the commission by a committee from the Federated Women's Missionary society today brought assurances from Commissioner B. J. Wade that immediate action to stop the practice will be made.

Little children playing in the sand piles are greatly endangered by people who drive around inside the park, and mothers of the children are kept in a continual state of anxiety for fear their children will be run down as they play in the sand piles and under the trees," Mrs. A. S. Graham, who, with Mrs. A. G. Evans, composed the committee from the society, told the commission.

Signs warning motorists not to drive their cars through the park will be posted at once, Commissioner Wade told the committee. He said he is going to Port Neches this afternoon and will instruct the park caretaker to prohibit automobile driving in the park.

The motorists who drive around in the park are usually those who go there to spend the day, and turning of the usual crowd of pleasure seekers, job in their automobiles, and drive about under the trees, endangering the lives of little children playing in the park, Mrs. Graham told the committee.

Commissioner Wade told Mrs. Sydney he understood the alley had been in a bad fix for sometime, and assured her immediate steps would be taken by the city to improve it.

DRILL TOWER FOR FIRE LADS

Second in Texas To Be Used In Practice 'Fights'

Port Arthur is to have the second fire department drill tower in Texas within the next 30 days.

The structure will be built entirely by members of the city's fire department. Fire Chief LaRosa said today, and ground for the tower was broken today.

Located on the canal bank at the foot of Waco avenue, a block from Central station, the drill tower will make possible the use of hose lines carrying full water pressure in fire fighting practice, the fire chief said.

To be 60 feet high.

Most of the drill towers are so near the station, city hall or other buildings that the firemen have to use empty hose lines in drilling on them," Chief LaRosa pointed out. This does not give the best results possible, he said, stressing the fact that handling a hose line carrying water pressure is vastly different from climbing from story to story with empty lines.

One side of the 60 foot tower will be located up, windows placed, left representing the rear stories and floor, laid on each story, the fire chief said. Apparatus for making smoke will be installed, and the fire ladders will be the nearest thing possible to the real thing, he said.

Actual Practice Work

"They will be required to carry hose up ladders, turn smoke-floors, shift from one floor to another with the hose lines as the 'fire' cuts it, was from story to story, and through the use of artificial smoke, they will learn how to go through the rooms without getting lost and overcome," Chief LaRosa said today.

The tower will be 15 feet square at the base, tapering off to 14 feet at the top. The main frame work for the structure will be long cedar piling, stanchions braced to withstand the wind and high pressure streams of water poured upon it. Funds for the tower, $750, were voted in the city's recent budget election.

Customs Collection Increase.

There is, however, a considerable increase in customs collections and there will be an increase in dutiable merchandise, A. A. Gunter explained. This results in customs fines which are imposed for failure to manifest merchandise, unlabeled merchandise without permission and other violations of customs regulations.

There also has been an increase in collections under the department of immigration due to immigration fines and bond tax.

In cooperation of the general business depression that has been felt in shipping the nation over generally, the report for the year, 1931, of Sabine district compares very favorably with past years, Gunter said.

The report of the Sabine district will show us as good in proportion as any of the other ports of the country, the customs officials declared.

VOWS TO KILL LETTER WRITER

Physician in Frenzy at Poison Notes

CHICAGO, July 11.—Dr. Barton W. Mack is 6 feet 2 inches tall and he has practiced medicine from his office for 20 years.

He made the following statement: "After three years of patient tolerance, I have made up my mind to kill the person who has been writing poison pen letters to my wife and myself."

"I make this statement solemnly and deliberately, because I believe it is the only course left to me for the protection of the lives of my wife and two children."

Threatened Baby Girl.

"The letters began, coming three years ago and have been growing in menace since. Last March the writer suddenly a woman wrote that she was going to kill my baby girl, Patricia."

"I waited for my baby for more than 24 years. The writer said she would kill the baby on the night of March 29. And at midnight a brick was hurled through the window, barely missing my baby and another child that happened to be in the room."

"The federal authorities and the police have failed to find their person. Last Saturday the life of my wife was cruelly threatened, and now I swear I am going to find the person and with my hand I will break his or her neck."

"No other weapon will be used, but, so help me God, if I find the person who is guilty of this thing before the authorities do, I shall kill him."

Phonics Death Message.

"The stock brought a new baby to the Mack household. The telephone is in the mother's room. The bell rang. The phone was answered by the nurse."

"Dead! We know nothing about it. How did it happen?"

These were the responses the agonized mother heard. The call came from a newspaper which was checking up a death notice that had been left. It said Dr. Mack had died suddenly.

Mrs. Mack, not knowing where her husband might be in making his professional rounds, collapsed. The doctor.

DIVERSIFICATION FARMERS' NEED

Agony Head Says Oversupply Broke Wheat

WICHITA, Kan., July 11.—J. C. Mohler, secretary of the Kansas state board of agriculture, addressing hundreds of farmers who gathered here from all parts of the great mid-western wheat belt said the real remedy for the ills of the wheat industry is diversification in farming.

The world, Mohler said, is over-loaded with wheat. Because European farmers turned to this product when there was an abundance there, he said, consequently the European market has diminished; the hope to increase domestic consumption to absorb the domestic surplus is futile. There, it seems, we face the realization that the wheat market has broken under the oversupply, the secretary declared.

Welland Canal To Be Completed by 1927

TORONTO, July 11.—The Welland canal will be completed, probably in 1927, at a total cost of $80,000,000, Honorable G. P. Graham, minister of railways and canals, announced in the Dominion parliament. About $21,000,000 has been expended thus far on the project, and parliament this session voted an additional $11,800,000.

In answer to opposition members who criticized the delay in completion of the undertaking, and the total cost, Honorable Mr. Graham declared that the estimated cost of $80,000,000, as compared with the first estimate of $55,000,000, was not excessive, when advanced costs of labor and materials were considered.

WETS AND DRIES RENEW BATTLE

Ohio, Cradle of Prohs, Scene
Of New Fight

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 17.—Ohio, cradle of prohibition, is to witness another battle over the wet and dry issue.

Forces of the American Anti-Saloon League and the Organization Against Prohibition are maneuvering for another spectacular clash.

The "drys" have laid plans—with $2,000,000 backing—to fight off any attempt of this or any other state to repeal its prohibition enforcement code. Their goal is to make Ohio a shining example of dryness for the whole country.

The "wets," following the recent Anti-Saloon League war council at Westerville, announced the first step in the counter-attack would be moving their headquarters to Columbus, a more strategic point, they believe, than Toledo.

"It will be fine business," said G. C. Hinkley, "if we can announce inroads on the dry cause right here in the home state of the Anti-Saloon League." Hinkley is general manager of the Organization Against Prohibition.

As soon as the organization's headquarters is well established here, the work will begin in earnest, said Hinkley. "We are going to hold the 189,000 dry votes we had in the election last fall and we're going to swell that number to a substantial wet majority."

Like their "enemy dry," Hinkley's men plan to do their missionary work in the congressional districts.

"Dry" leaders, declaring they are more amused than frightened by the activities of the opposition, point out that every possible indication of the trend in Ohio since the first wet dry has been that she is growing drier every year.

It is true that there is not the sparkling enthusiasm for battle among the "wets" of the electorate that has marked other conflicts on this issue.

Most Ohioans seem reconciled to a "dry" future insofar as the law is concerned and few persons will deny that the work of the prohibition agents has been effectual.

There was great promise in the work of the Organization Against Prohibition before the election last fall. People were thinking there might be something to the talk of wine and beer coming back in the state. But then the election came and the "slumps" were defeated overwhelmingly. Now there doesn't seem to be so much of that old-time confidence in the "wet" ranks.

Election time, however, may bring new life to the campaigners and new enthusiasm to the voters.

BAPTISTS SHOW BIG GROWTH IN EUROPE

STOCKHOLM, July 17.—Baptists from every continent are arriving in Sweden for the first international congress since the one held in Philadelphia 12 years ago. Many have already arrived from the United States, Canada, Great Britain, and several hundred are en route from countries of continental Europe, including the new states of Latvia, Estonia, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

More than 100 Russian Baptists, ministers and members of the soviet government, it is reported that the Baptists of Russia now number one million, whereas, in the days of the czar, there were only 150,000. While by far the largest single national representation are from the United States, Baptist leaders are stressing the denomination's growth in continental Europe since the war. According to Dr. J. H. Rushbrooke, Baptist Commissioner of Europe, with headquarters in London, the post-war period has witnessed one of the most phenomenal growths in religious history.

"In the year of Waterloo (1815) there was no Baptist church on the mainland of Europe," he said. (Europe in this instance is referred to exclusive of the British Isles.)

"In 1850 there were about 4,000 church members.

"In 1900 the number had risen to about 220,000.

"In the year 1923 there are certainly not less than 1,250,000 and the number perhaps exceeds 2,000,000."

FIVVERS ARE HIGH

LIVERPOOL, July 17.—Due to the difference in price of Ford cars in England and the United States, prices now placed on good used cars in most of the big cities are higher here than they are for new models in America. A good 1921 touring car sells for about 90 pounds, or nearly $450.

PRIMITIVE AND MODERN WAY TO CARRY MAIL

New Theory Explains Creation of the Earth

WASHINGTON, July 17.—A theory that the earth and the other planets were formed from fragments rent from the sun by the powerful tidal attraction of a passing star, is advanced by J. H. Jeans, R. S. in the annual report of the Smithsonian Institution.

Casting about for a theory which harmonizes difficulties of the nebular hypothesis, Jeans and his school of thought have evolved the tidal hypothesis.

According to this theory of the origin of the solar system, what probably happened at the moment of the catenation, Jeans says, is that the attraction caused the sun mass to eject two arms or jets of matter, one towards the attracting star and the other in exactly the opposite direction.

Due to the instability of the distribution of density in one of the masses, condensations formed in it and ultimately it broke up into separate detached masses. The surviving jet formed our sun; the fragments of the burst jet are now our planets.

From the mathematical investigation on which this hypothesis is based, it appears, according to Jeans' article, that the jets thrown out would have been gaseous, but would have rapidly cooled in the process of ejection to liquid or even solid states.

"It can be shown that the planets which would be formed out of the middle portion of such a jet ought to be much more massive than those formed near the ends, and this may possibly provide an explanation of the comparatively great masses of Jupiter and Saturn," Jeans states.

"We imagine that the planets at first described orbits under the combined gravitational action of the sun and the passing star, but as the star receded they were left revolving as at present, around the sun. During their earlier motion they may themselves have been broken up by the tidal action of one or both of the big masses present, and such a process may explain the origin of the satellites of the planets."

TUBERCULOSIS CURE?

VENTNOR, England, July 17.—There is great demand for the new Dreyer process of inoculation of anti-tuberculosis vaccine. Experiments are in their infancy, and it will be some time, it is announced, before it is definitely established whether the method is absolutely successful.

Eddy Finds Ruhr Situation Similar to Old Indian Strife

BERLIN, July 17.—Dr. Sherwood Eddy, of New York, general secretary of the International Y. M. C. A., observed in an address here that the passive resistance in the Ruhr had many similarities to the historic resistance of the Indian people against England. Dr. Eddy has been in India for 15 years and studied here en route to America.

Tells Insurance Men When It Will Rain

MADISON, Wis., July 17.—The official "rainmaker" of the United States weather bureau here, Eric Miller, has made a series of speeches, covering a period of 18 years, showing at what hours it is most likely to rain. At the request of an insurance company making a theatrical tour for their outdoor performances, Miller compiled this table from records of observations made during his term as head of the local weather bureau.

A sudden shower would be less likely to ruin a lecture performance than an evening blow, he observed the company, as during a rain and summer months rain is most frequent between the hours of 4 p. m. and 2 a. m.

About 18,000,000 tons of coal are consumed in London annually, 7,000,000 tons being used for domestic purposes.

Glands Darkened His Hair But They Failed When He Sought To Be Made Young Again

NEW YORK, July 17.—Cannibals may be correct in their theory that they gain their enemies' strength by eating them, according to Dr. William H. Field, of Chicago, who called for Germany today on the V. estrophia to obtain a chimpanzee upon which to conduct regeneration experiments.

"Perhaps these ancient and primitive people hit upon a great scientific truth," declared Doctor Field. "For instance take the adrenal glands, which are the glands of courage. We are now using this gland from sheep as a heart stimulant and in some instances babies and human beings whose vitality has been suspended have been brought back to life."

"One of my clients in Chicago, a wealthy attorney and politician who had been taking the glandular injection and whose hair was white, has a head of hair that since has darkened. His blood pressure has come down from 180 to 140, but as soon as he got to be feeling vigorous he made the mistake of trying to be a youth again."

THE WOUNDED VETERAN

A party of northern tourists passed through Houston the other day, and while their train was waiting at the depot an old colored man, with one arm bandaged and hung in an old red handkerchief for a shawl, walked along the platform.

"What's the matter with your arm, uncle?" called out one of the tourists. "It was hurt in de war, sah. Hab you any 'hacco you could gib a pa' 'ole niggah, sah?"

Several of the tourists poked their heads out of the car windows to look at him, and in a few moments the old man had taken up a collection in his hat, consisting of a plug of tobacco, three or four cigars, and sundry nickels, dimes and quarters.

"How were you wounded," asked a tourist. "Were you shot in the arm?"

"No, sah; hit wuzn't exax' by a shot."

"Piece of shell strike you?"

"No, sah; wuzn't shell."

"Bayonet wound, maybe?"

"No, boss; hit wuzn't a bayonet."

"What battle were you in?"

"Do know of it had a name, but hit wuz a mighty hot fight while it lasted."

"Do you draw a pension?"

"No, boss."

"It seems it would be a charitable act, said a tourist to the others, 'to take this old darky's name and see that he gets the pension he is certainly entitled to. What is your name, uncle?'"

"Mose Addison, sah."

"Now, Mose," said the tourist, "give me the particulars of the engagement you were in, and the date, and all the information you possess about the manner in which you were wounded, and the government will pay you a nice little sum every three months to help you along."

"An dat so, boss?" asked the old warrior, his eyes growing big with wonder. "Den I'll tell you about hit. Hit wuz totin' a big chance of wuz to make a fish, when—"

"Never mind about what you did in camp," said the tourist. "Tell us in which battle of the war of the rebellion were you engaged."

"It wuzn't dat wah, boss; it wuz de wah wid Spain."

"What do you mean?"

"Leome tell you how it wuz. I wuz wood and does odd jobs up to Cunel Wadkins' place. Cunel Wadkins de biggo' fighter in de South. W'en dis here wah wid Spain cum up in de paper Cunel Wadkins 'low he gwine ter pulverize de whole Spanish nation. He set all day in de saloon an' he talk about it, and he cum home at meal time an' he git out his ole 'cord, and he don't talk about nothin' else."

"Mose," said one of Cunel's wife, she suppose de family, and she do de cookin'. Last Saterday night de kumel come home, and he been drinkin' plenty. Mose Suse he look at him out shot her mouf tight, an' say nothin'."

"De Cunel git out de 'cord an' low dat de day od reek-min' am cum wid de cruel an' blood-hustle Spanish. Mose Suse went on fryin' batter cakes, but Land! don't know dat woman gwine ter bust things wide open patty soon!"

"I fetch in a turn od wood; de Cunel he settin' by de kitchen table, kinder lookin' round in de chair. 'Ec I cum in de do' de Cunel say: 'You is treat me cool, Madam, kase I up-hol' de dignity od de Wadkins family. De Wadkinses nebbah wuz; dey am solgers an' an' got ter keep ready fur der country's call!'"

"He wuz you 'ole' does, 'Ec says Mose Suse. 'Well, den, lemme treat you warm—sah!'"

"She pu' out de 'billin' teakle a big pan full od hot water an' she fling it all ober de Cunel. I giv a big lot od it on my arm, as I was pillin' de wood in de box, an' it tuk de skin off, an' I dun hab it wrapped up fo' days. De Cunel am in bed yit, but he swar when he git up, to gwine ter wok."

"Dat's how his here wah wid Spain done up dis ole niggah. 'Tont wuz, boss, we'll do 'fust payment od dat pen-hun git here, do you reckon?"

SAMUEL AND JONATHAN

Col. Samuel B. Amidon of Kansas has gone abroad. Colonel Amidon will return in September. Colonel Amidon is the democratic national committeeman for Kansas. Colonel Amidon held Kansas in line for McAdoo at San Francisco. He has been slated to be the McAdoo manager of the states west of the Mississippi river in the campaign next year.

Before boarding an ocean liner Colonel Amidon was stuffed by New York friends. That is he was banqueted. Americans when they wish to confer a distinction upon a fellow citizen invite him to a feed function and proceed to stuff him.

There was a time when stuffing was a noble pastime but since the coming of the Volstead law it is a punk sport. And back to Amidon. During the festive occasion before and after while the stuffing was on, discussion of Henry Ford's chances occupied the time of the McAdoo strategists.

They concluded that if McAdoo announced his candidacy soon enough he could spike a Ford democratic boom although the Detroit billionaire would still have to be reasoned with as a third party candidate.

Kansas has a democratic governor this year. His name is Jonathan Davis. He wears one gallus, hob-nail shoes, jeans garments, and he never saw a banquet in his life until his fellow dirt farmer, of Kansas elected him to the high office of governor.

Jonathan and Samuel are not going the same road. Jonathan has been told that he would make an ideal vice president of the United States and that by running on a ticket with Henry Ford it would be easy for him to nose into the job now held by John Calvin Coolidge, the noble son of Massachusetts who buys his wife's hats, makes iceberg speeches which neither inflame or inspire and wields the gavel when the American senate is in session.

Now, who is to be the boss of Kansas next year? the colonel or the governor? The dirt farmer or the politician? If dollar wheat continues and the wheat farmers of Kansas revolt there is no telling just what will happen in the sunflower state.

Farmer-labor leaders are clamoring for price fixing of farm products by the government. Where is the democrat big enough to be president who will travel that far to gain votes? There are millions of farmers or farm-laborers who are said to favor the price-fixing program.

If the price of wheat is to be fixed by the government then why not the price of cotton? This is a merry old age in which we are living.

HE MAY COME BACK

Governor E. Lee Trinkle of Virginia makes the important admission that the problem uppermost in the south is that of labor. He asserts that the migration of negroes to the north is causing a curtailment of agriculture and building and is creating a very trying situation.

Thousands of negroes are deserting Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia and other southern states for the factories of the north and east and the governor has made the discovery that they are going north in great numbers from nearly every part of the south in response to the offers to high wages which are made to them by labor agents whose business it is to get laborers in quantities.

Governor Trinkle surmises that the negro laborer will not remain in the north; that he does not fit into the scheme of things in the north and for this reason that he will not stay long in the north. Should the negro fail to return the governor says the south will have to content itself with less lavish production or an importation of foreign labor. And he is satisfied in his own mind that the southwest will not consent to the importation of foreign labor.

Governor Trinkle is going to find himself mistaken. A million negroes have deserted the south for the north since the coming of the world war. A large percentage of these deserters will never return to the south. First southern statesmen of the vintage of this period declared that the ports should be closed or nearly closed. They demanded that aliens from Europe and other countries should be shut out.

When prosperity returned there was an acute scarcity of unskilled labor. This gave the southern negro his opportunity. He grasped it. He succumbed to the lure of the northern labor agent, and the tide of negro migration from the south is growing greater all the time and the greater the prosperity in the manufacturing centers of the north the greater will be the demand for the black laborer of the south. Governor Trinkle says the south has only to slow up on its production for a little while.

There will be no slowing of production in the north or the west or the east. How will it be possible for the south to lag behind? Who will cultivate the farms of the south? Who will do the rough labor? Not the sons of the fairly well to do families. Not to sons of the land owners. Not the sons of the men who are foremost in the building of the cities and towns of the south.

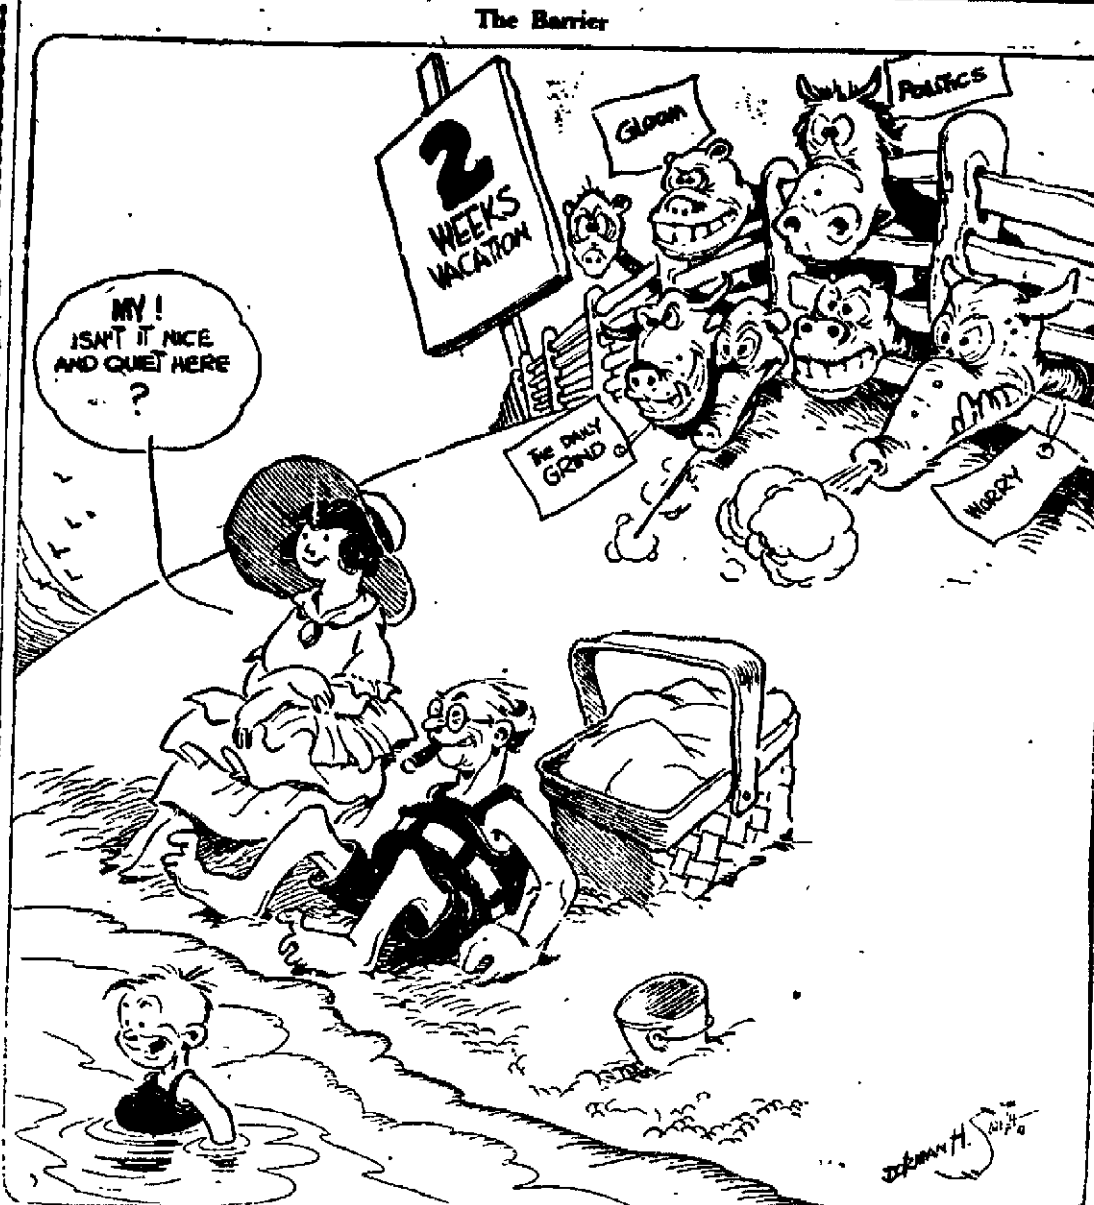

Here in Texas the Mexican is routing out the negro. There are many sections where the Mexican has displaced the negro. A Mexican who wishes to come to this country pays a head tax for admission. An European alien who comes to this country is barred by a thousand restrictions.

South Carolina has a majority of whites for the first time in a hundred years. Florida has a majority of whites. Louisiana has a majority of whites and the whites will be in the majority in Mississippi in the near future. All this happened since the coming of the world war.

It is a fifty-fifty proposition. The flight of the negro has given the south a labor proposition and the north a race problem.

William Jennings Bryan says there is only one basis for world peace and that is on a basis of "Brotherhood." He says there is no hope for the world except in peace, no hope for peace except in world disarmament and no hope for world disarmament except in worship of the Man whose arrival on this earth startled the shepherds of Bethlehem. William Jennings Bryan is a magnificent preacher, a regular Peter-the-Hermit Crusader. His heart is all right, his tongue is all right most of the time, but the brotherhood-of-man gospel falls upon deaf ears this wide world over whenever the greed of man is uppermost and it is uppermost wherever civilization has found its way and planted its cash register.

Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska is seeking a constitutional amendment ridding the country of the Electoral College. He says there is no hope for the people until the names of all candidates are placed on a ticket and the high man takes down the prize and that the Electoral College system will make it impossible for an independent candidate to win next year or in any year to come unless the Electoral College is junked and to do this the Twentieth Amendment must be added to the Constitution of the United States. Norris is a free lance.

"BELLA DONNA"

An advance notice says:

After one has gazed at the unusually elaborate settings, and after making a mental note of the staggering figure which it must have cost to put Pola Negri's first American production on the screen, we find that the most interesting feature is to study the new, magnificent Pola Negri.

With the support of a real east-grown-in screen, Miss Negri will astonish her hosts of admirers on the side of the big pond.

"Bella Donna" is astonishing in its realism. It is almost impossible to believe that the "Egypt," the "London," the "Venice" we see in this picture have been built. These massive and beautiful sets, are beyond comparison. The masquerade ball which starts the picture unrecalling in its continued brilliance, the ruins of old Egypt, the scenes along the Nile, on the housetop, in the hashish den, in the begoggled London, in the vast stretches of the desert—all are marvels of screencraft.

The acting of the cast, Conway Tearle, Lois Wilson and Conrad Nagel is flawless. Miss Negri rises to ethereal heights of emotional acting.

"Bella Donna" opened a five-day engagement at the Peoples theatre today.

"SOULS FOR SALE"

An advance notice says:

Evidently Rupert Hughes, an impetuous sort of a chap, grew rather weary of hearing his cherished locality, "Hollywood," referred to as though it was prancing about on chicken hoofs, and allowing Roman candles, for it "Souls for Sale," now playing at the Peoples theatre, he has set himself out to set Hollywood right in the eyes of the doubting ones.

It holds one's interest from the moment Eleanor Boardman, as the sad-faced heroine, jumps from a transcontinental express in the middle of the Great American desert, until the end in complete destruction by fire and tornado of a circle as big as P. T.

Barium ever dreamed of.

The cast? See "Who's Who in Hollywood," and even then you'll miss a few who appear.

Copper money bearing the uncrowned head of Queen Victoria is being called in by the Bank of England.

LETTER FROM BEATRICE GRIMSHAW TO SALLY AINSWORTH

MY DEAR SALLY:

Of course you have heard of the terrible thing that has happened to poor Leslie. Her mother wrote me yesterday.

About three weeks ago, while out driving, the steering gear of her car broke and she was pinned under it. She did not regain consciousness for hours and even then her brain did not seem to be right.

Doctors Daven and Melton, who, as you know, are the greatest surgeons in the country, performed an operation and found a piece of bone pressing upon the brain at the back of the skull.

In the meantime her case was complicated by the birth of her child, which necessitated a Caesarian operation.

No one is allowed to see her as yet, but Mrs. Hamilton says that she grieves so much for her baby. It seems that Leslie had told no one, not even John. She seemed to be afraid to tell him. She had taken Ruth Ellington out for a drive that morning for the purpose of telling her about her condition and expected to tell John that night.

According to Ruth, the girls were very much engrossed in conversation when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Hamilton is still with Leslie. At first it was thought that Alice should be called to return home, but afterward Karl Whitney volunteered to go across and be there to bring her back, so they delayed until a few days ago telling Alice anything about it.

Mrs. Hamilton says she never saw such devotion in her life as Jack is giving to Leslie. He never leaves her bedside except to do what business is absolutely necessary. This is particularly hard upon him, Mrs. Hamilton says, because Leslie does not know him all the time and at times keeps asking him to bring John to her that she may tell him that she is going to have a baby and asking if he thinks that John will be pleased.

She tells him over and over again that she has been afraid to tell John a baby is coming for she doesn't think John will like it.

Mrs. Hamilton says this almost breaks Jack's heart.

By the way, do you remember Sally, that little Perier girl? Some one told me the other day that she had gone into the movies, or at least was soon going to Los Angeles, where she had a contract to appear in pictures.

The girl who told me said she was looking very badly, thin and pale, but extremely interesting. Said she had much more character in her face than ever before and that she thought she would do well in moving pictures.

Jack, you know, was quite devoted to her at one time. I wonder if she was in love with him.

Am glad to know that Sam is in better spirits and that there is some hope held out for the regaining of his eyesight.

With lots of love,

HEE.

ROCKS OF NEW KNITTED FABRICS ARE CAPTIVATING FOR SUMMER MONTHS WEAR

FASHION'S trend toward knitted costumes and costumes of the new knitted fabrics has been steadily advancing during the past few seasons—the result being captivating knitted frocks and suits for summer. And no wonder! The wide variety of texture, color, pattern and stitch in the materials; the perfection of line in the garments made of them, their serviceability and moderate price all combine to make them irresistibly attractive.

Knitted fabrics for every type of summer costume range from the finest pure thread jersey to luxuriously heavy sports fabrics of wool or fiber silk. Knitted silk and fiber fabrics in plain and in the stitch take the place of more expensive satins and wovens. Some of the knitted fabrics are so distinctive in texture and stitch that no other material can compare to them. Drop stitch and open work fabrics are typical of the summer frocks and are being shown a great deal of favor. The variety of patterns and fascinating combinations in figured knitted materials are astonishingly beautiful.

Summer cypresses are more subdued and in "chicness" are more artistic than they have been for several years. Wood tones lead in the knitted wool materials. The most popular are cork, sandalwood and oakwood. Both in knitted wool and silk greens are growing in popularity as the season advances, almond green, reseda and laurin being the most important. Yellow seems to be having the vogue that was predicted for it last year, and easy beds and orange tones, somewhat neutralized, are also popular. Blue is represented by a brilliant greenish tone of Egyptian inspiration.

Knitting done in all-over designs is coming to stay. Embroidery in both wool and silk is much used, although woolen embroidery is done in lighter weight yarn and in more solid designs than formerly. Bindings of silk are often used as trimmings and ribbon finishes are also gaining vogue. Although in a few instances waistlines are a trifle higher, this tendency is not marked. Skirt lengths are still varied, though the eight-inch-from-the-floor length for general wear still prevails. The square neckline is finding a place among the fashionable offerings and for slipover dresses is especially satisfactory as the bateau neck. The surplice neckline is also a pleasing variation.

The straight jackets of many of the more dressy knitted fabric suits are even shorter than in the early spring. Both skirt and coat are often ornamented with embroidery in wool or silk. Apron skirts are also to be seen in many of the new suits and are sometimes merely a panel-like affair in the front. Again the apron portion extends well to the back and there are two aprons that almost meet at each side of the skirt. For afternoon frocks of knitted fabrics fashion still remains true to the one-piece dress, although flitting extravagantly with the two-piece knitted costume. The tiered skirt costume is one of the newest variations and is gradually taking the place of the uneven length frock with circular skirt insets and flowing panels. Designers are cleverly breaking the often unbecoming around-and-around line by flounces or added bands.

The so-called sports costume, serving as an admirer for all daytime activities, has never been more alluring than it is this year, and in these knitted fabrics are also taking the lead. The introduction of the two-piece knitted costume, consisting of skirt and over-blouse, is an innovation in knitted outerwear worth the attention of every wearer. Tan moiré bordered in stripes of brown and orange fiber silk makes one attractive frock of this kind. It has a slip-on blouse, finished with a girlish Peter Pan collar, bound in brown. The same binding appears on the cuffs of

SALT THROWING IS FEARED AS HOODOO SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 17.—Old Aztec superstition of believing that salt thrown into a person's house by an enemy will cause something terrible to happen, brought pretty eighteen-year-old Sara Castellano into the sheriff's office, charged with threatening another woman. The complaint was filed against her by a rival beauty of "little Mexico," Juana Jote.

According to the story told to Sheriff James Stevens by Juana, the trouble between the two beauties arose during the Cinco de Mayo celebration when Sara's dancing cavalier displayed a preference for dancing the native steps with her.

Sara, Juana told Stevens, vowed that she would bring trouble to the house of Jote. The first ill omen, Juana declared, was when Sara threw a handful of salt through the front door of the Jote family home. Sara was released on her own recognizance.

HUNT OWNER OF 2,500 BARRELS OF REAL RUM

PHILADELPHIA, July 17. (U. S. district court here is trying to find the owner of 2,500 barrels of pure Overholt whisky, valued at $25,000,000, stored in the Philadelphia Pure Rye Whisky Distilling Company at Edgington, Pa.

The company recently confiscated the liquor for non-payment of storage, after being unable to find the owner. When it was learned federal agents were about to seize the whisky, they filed suit asking that six government department executives be restrained from removing the liquor. Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Moss, Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair, Collector of Internal Revenue McCaughy, Collector of Customs Acker, and Federal Prohibition Director Davis were named as defendants.

Owners of the warehouse some time ago sold their holding to a syndicate headed by Leo A. Keane, Keane said that the 2,500 barrels of Overholt were part of a shipment of 12,000 barrels ordered in France in 1920, before prohibition. Because there was no market for the entire shipment, the 2,500 barrels were returned from France and placed in the warehouse.

No storage has been paid since October, 1920. The owners of the liquor have not revealed their identity.

53-Ounce Girl's Life Heat Is Handicap to

BAITIMORE, Md., July 17.—Weighing only three pounds five ounces, Mary Elizabeth Chien, 2-months-old, probably is the smallest baby of her age in Baltimore. At least, she is the smallest of the thousands of children who have entered the St. Vincent's infant asylum, 1401 Division street. Her mother died soon after her birth.

Physicians and sisters at the institution are doing everything in their power to keep the child alive, but fear she will not survive the intense heat.

Sister Dora, head of St. Vincent's, and Sister Lucia, in charge of the infant department, yesterday held a consultation and decided the child must be taken to Johns Hopkins hospital.

Dr. Daniel J. Pessagno, medical superintendent at Mercy hospital, expected the normal weight of a baby 2 months old, and the child should weigh from 11 to 13 pounds.

TAKE MERRITONE

Give Nature a Chance to Make You Well Again

Thousands Have Found Renewed Health After Taking Few Doses of Burke's Merritone.

If you are not enjoying good health, you are depriving yourself of many of the joys of life. Nature didn't intend that you should suffer from Liver, Stomach, Kidney and other disorders of the body. Some time or other you ignored the warnings that your body gave you. Now you complain of headache, dizziness and a general run-down feeling.

Perhaps you are like F. J. Ross, of Paris, Texas, who wrote that he had been great benefited after taking one bottle of MERRITONE.

"I was run down and tired all the time. For six years was troubled with kidney and stomach disorders. One bottle of your wonderful medicine gave me relief. To make sure the relief would be permanent, I shall take the five-bottle treatment."

Mr. Ross, who made the above statement, said he did not have the "usual nervous and weak spells" after taking ONLY one bottle. We can refer you to hundreds of similar instances where the relief was immediate.

Anderson College of Beaumont, Texas, says:

"After trying various remedies without satisfactory results, I decided to try MERRITONE after hearing of this wonderful medicine through some of my friends. One bottle was secured and taken as instructed. The pains have disappeared, though to make sure they do not return, shall take the remaining four bottles of MERRITONE as recommended."

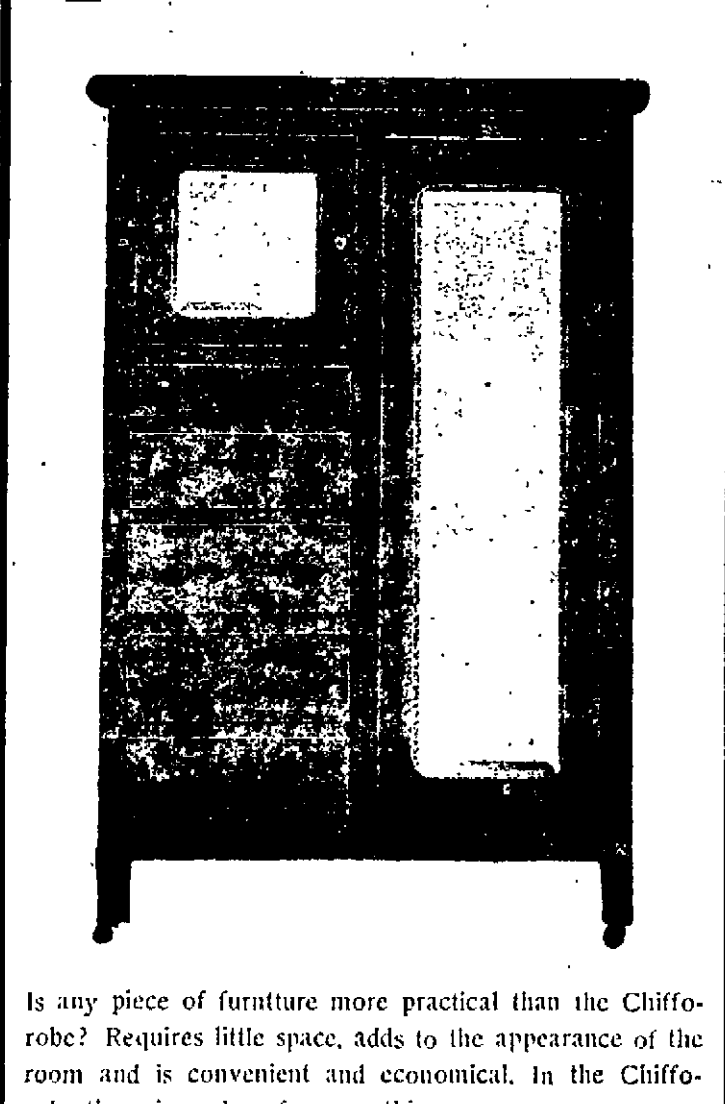

Henry Bridges of Paris, Texas, writes:

"I used your MERRITONE for three weeks, and it has made a new man of me. I now feel strong and healthy."

For loss of appetite, weak stomach, nervousness, neuritis, liver and kidney disorders, indigestion, constipation, malaria and bilious attacks, MERRITONE after each meal gives prompt relief. It regulates the bowels and gives the entire system the tone of youth.

Football Players Perfect Husbands, Say Three Sisters

ATLANTA, Ga., July 17.—What kind of men make the best husbands? Sometimes it takes a lifetime to find out, and even then there is doubt. But there is one Georgia family that is decided. Each of its three daughters unite in the answer: "Football players make the best husbands."

For within six months the Misses Grace, Loretta and Ruth Jackson, belles in the younger southern social circles, married three stars of the Georgia Tech football team. Now they are respectively Mrs. Dewey Scarborough, Mrs. "Big Six" Carpenter and Mrs. "Daddy" Ames.

All of them are still honeymooning—the Carpenters in Florida, the Ameses in California and the Scar-

U. S. WILL TAKE HEALTH CENSUS

Nation-Wide Study Will Be Conducted

WASHINGTON, July 17.—A great nation-wide study of the health of each man, woman and child in the United States will be undertaken July 4, 1934, the U. S. public health service has announced.

"The national health council, a combination of the 15 greatest medical and public health organizations in America, during the year beginning July 1 next, will endeavor to persuade every person in the United States to take a peep into the future to see what the condition of his health will be a few years hence," the announcement stated.

"Anybody who does not like what he sees will be told what he can do to better it."

For ages men have sought to probe the future by reading the stars, consulting the oracles, visiting fortune tellers and mediums, and even by watching for the promulgator and reading the goosebone. But always when men sought information concerning the future they coupled their request with the question, unspoken, but always understood: "Will I be there to see the prophecy fulfilled?"

"It is not so difficult as it may seem to predict how long a man will retain his health or will live. His expectation of life is particularly easy to estimate. Subtract his age from 80; and if his health is good he will probably live for more than two-thirds of the difference."

"But is his health good?"

"A life insurance company can answer the question pretty accurately. Unless it does so it is bound to go bankrupt sooner or later. Finally it examines you physically, not merely to find out whether you are sound at the moment but whether you have any unsuspected disease whose existence neither you nor any one else could know from ordinary observation."

"Most persons think of death as coming from one of the great diseases—typhoid fever, for instance. But it isn't these that do the real damage. It's the hidden things that weaken your energy without your knowing it till the end comes and you find yourself defenseless."

"All these things can be and will be investigated under the council's plan by a reputable physician—by each person's family doctor, if he likes. The council hopes that at least 10,000,000 persons, say 20,000 a day, will have themselves examined during the 12 months beginning July 4 next."

"This national health examination campaign will unquestionably markedly lengthen the average human life. Its span in the United States was lengthened from 41 to 46 during the 50 years that elapsed between 1870 and 1920."

STEWED GEESE

LONDON, July 17.—A flock of geese on a farmhouse near Evesham, recently drank courageously of some cordial. They immediately started a riot. The farmer, fearing they were poisoned, plucked their feathers, which he hoped to sell, and then threw the fowl in a barnhouse. The next morning he was surprised to see the geese come sheepishly out of the barn, still a bit wobbly, but otherwise no different than a human being on the morning after.

ATTACKED BY LION

NAIROBI, Kenya colony, July 17. A British railway engineer, named Fane, engaged on the construction of the new Uasin-Gishu line, was returning to the construction camp when he walked into a lion's den with two cubs. Before he could fire the lioness leaped on him and severely mauled him. Then the beast fled.

BIG AIR RACE

MILAN, Italy, July 17.—Seventy-four airplanes took part in the race for the Caracra cup, over a circular course of 1000 kilometres (625 miles) from Cuscinello, near here. Thirty completed the distance.

"You can always be sure that you've married a real man if you marry a man who has played through several seasons of football. For, if he wasn't a real man, he never would have stood the test."

She had often seen Scarborough on the gridiron. He was a hero popular with everyone.

Says Mrs. Scarborough: "But there never was a little voice whispering 'Here's your future husband' when I first saw Dewey. I liked him, of course; everybody did."

Then they all went camping.

"There is nothing like camp life to get people acquainted with each other, is there?" says the young bride. "We lived in tents and cooked on an oil stove and swam and drove and had a wonderful time. It was there we fell in love."

"Then one day Dewey called me up and said: 'Let's get married today.' I said: 'All right.' And that's all there was to it."

Meanwhile football romances No. 2 and No. 3 were making rapid headway of their own. Loretta had fallen in love with "Big Six" Carpenter, Georgia Tech star of the class of '17; and Ruth had become engaged to "Daddy" Ames, member of last year's class.

"They planned a double wedding," explains their sister, "but they couldn't agree on what kind of wedding to have. One wanted a church wedding; the other a home wedding. Finally each had her own way."

"Dude Ranchers" Have Stage Set for Many Old Scenes of the Wild West

ON TOUR WITH PRESIDENT HARDING, July 17.—There is a rather new and flourishing industry in the west. It has brought a measure of prosperity to some agriculturalists who were finding the going rather hard until they thought of it. It is the "dude ranch."

Nowadays, if you go into the west on a tour, you get a nickname. If you travel in style aboard a Pullman and stop in hotels, and see your country from a sightseeing bus or under the direction of a tour conductor, you are a "dude."

President Harding and his party were called "dudes" when they went into the Yellowstone country. There was no offense in the term; it merely distinguished them from the other class of travelers—the "sagebrushers" who go in the family chariot—tin lizzie or limousine. The sagebrushers are so-called because they come through the sagebrush, burn sagebrush, and in time get to look almost the color of sagebrush. They are the honest-to-goodness travelers, who take it easy and really see things.

In the tourist season the "dudes" fill up the big hotels in Yellowstone and other national playgrounds, so that the only way a guest can get his meals on time is by luck or the exercise of a winning personality on the head waiter. There is always a "bread line" at the dining room doors of these places.

A bronze tablet in memory of sixteen officers and men of the United States army, who died of starvation and exposure in the Arctic in 1894, is now on the way to Cape Sabine, Ellesmere Land, where it will be placed at the scene of one of the most tragic disasters in the history of American Arctic exploration, the rescue camp of the Greely expedition. Set in the rocks at latitude 78 deg. 45 min. north, more than 400 miles above the Arctic circle, this will be one of the most northerly monuments in the world. On the tablet is inscribed:

"To the memory of the dead, who, under Lieutenant A. W. Greely here gave their lives to ensure the final and complete success of the first scientific co-operation of the United States with other nations 1881-1894."

The tablet is being erected by the National Geographic society and will be placed during the present summer by Donald MacMillan, Arctic explorer and lieutenant of Peary on the voyage which resulted in the discovery of the North pole.

Kearns Says Dempsey Will Scrap 3 Times Before Year's End

Wills, Firpo, Greb, Or Gibbons May Be Figures in Matches

Champion's Manager Lists to Rumors of South American Bout and Says Jack Wants Battle for Labor Day "With Someone"

NEW YORK, July 17.—In need of a couple of good shots for the firm's pocketbook, Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, said today that the champion was going to fight three times before the end of the year.

Harry Wills, Luis Firpo or either Tommy Gibbons or Harry Greb are the fall-ins that Kearns is trying to get on his books. Tex Rickard's proposition to put Dempsey and Firpo in the ring in Buenos Aires in November does not appeal to Kearns as much as a fight in this country. He also does not want to wait that long.

"Dempsey and I have decided to get a date for Labor Day and we are going to get it. If New York promoters can't stir up something, we'll go to the mid-west and meet Gibbons or Greb," Kearns said.

The champion's manager admitted he could not get a great purse outside of New York but he said they would work for what they could get.

After a conference with Rickard yesterday, Kearns said if Dempsey worked either against Wills or Firpo the champion would demand 50 per cent of the gate receipts. He contends that a champion is worth that much and he pointed out that a fight in New York, where the top price is $15, would not bring the champion as much as he got for fighting Carpenter even if he took half the gate.

Tommy O'Rourke, Jim Johnson and Rickard are all bidding for the champion's services, but as Kearns put it—"no one has shown us any dough."

After his experience at Shelby, Kearns no doubt will want to see most of the dough coming to him before he puts his name on paper. Johnson wants to put Dempsey and Wills in the Yankee stadium around world's series time. He seems to have been given some kind of assurance that the boxing commission will sanction the bout.

Rickard says he is ready to stage the Dempsey-Firpo fight in South America, and that he has been assured that the receipts will go over $300,000.

Kearns says he would go to South America if the fight was not possible in the United States. Asked if he thought that the people down there might be hostile to Dempsey, he replied:

"Couldn't be more hostile than they were in Shelby."

Due to hard rain that is falling and the sloppy condition of the turf, Smith's ball is almost covered with mud as he addresses it for his second shot which he hopes will carry him on the green. Has Smith the right to lift his ball and remove the mud prior to playing his second shot? The condition of the ball makes it seem certain that it will interfere with distance and direction. And on the ball is not considered as rendering the fair unit for play. In match play you lose the hole if you clean the mud from the ball prior to shooting. Usually if the rain is falling hard while a match is being played and the turf is in bad condition, the committee in charge makes a special rule, granting the players permission to remove the mud from the ball without suffering a penalty.

ERECTING VILLAGE

Speaking of the Olympiad, the word is given out by the American Olympic committee that a little village is being constructed outside the stadium at Columbus.

Practically all of the countries have agreed to take a number of the little villages which have four separate rooms, suitably furnished, with two bedrooms and lavatories. The houses taken by each country will be fenced off so that each nation will be a separate community.

Each section there will be a large dining room and reading room with shower baths and massage.

A big dance and reception hall will be erected in the center of the village and likewise a theater, where productions will be staged for the athletes.

A practice running track and swimming pool also is being provided.

FIRPO BEATS JESS WILLARD

Just before the action. An unusual picture taken in it shows the enormous attack of Lt. Angel Firpo, Argentine heavyweight, landing on Jess Willard just before he put over the right to the jaw that knocked out the American in the eighth round.

This extraordinary photograph, taken under the difficult conditions of night, shows Jess W. Willard, former heavy weight champion of the world, taking the count of ten at the hands of Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine giant, in the eighth round of a battle staged at Doyle's Thirty Acres, near Cayuga, N. Y. One hundred thousand people saw Firpo knock out Willard with a terrific right to the jaw Thursday night, July 12. The picture shows Willard on one knee as Referee Harry Lewis counted him out.

HUSTON DRIVES OVER 'SLUMP'

Finishes Twice in Money Last Sunday

ROY HUSTON, local driver, came out of his losing slump last Sunday on the Houston Speedway, and came in for second money in the 12-mile event and third in the 50-mile free-for-all.

Huston drove a Pontiac in the 50-mile run, and followed Glenn Broad in a Hudson, who finished first, and Bradshaw in a Marmon, who came in second in the race. In the 12-mile event for non-winners in the first race, Huston, after encountering a stop on the second lap in a Dodge he was driving, and being an out-lap, sprinted ahead and crossed the finish line seconds behind Jerry driving a Pontiac Ford.

Rex Edmunds, owner of the car Huston was driving, finished third in a Ford.

Wills Resumes Work

ADAMS, Mass., July 17.—Harry Wills, negro challenger for the heavyweight championship, has resumed training for his prospective fight with Jack Dempsey. "Don't need much training; I'm 'bout ready now," Wills said.

IT'S MOSTLY SCIENCE

A lot of folks talk about the "luck of the game."

In most cases it about evens up in the long run. Walter Hoover, the Duluth sailing star, who won the Diamond Skulls last year, lost this year to the same man in the same manner that he had won.

When Hoover and D. H. L. Golan of Leanders were rowing the first heat in the race last year, Golan's oar blade split and he was forced to drop out of the race, while Hoover continued on and won.

This year Hoover's oar split in the same heat.

City League Games Resumed With Mack Leachmen and Island

After a rest of some eight days, the City League resumed play this afternoon on Lake Shore diamond with the Citizens matched against the Islanders in a regular scheduled game.

The diamond is not in the best condition it could be in, due to the bad weather of the past week. However, it is practically thorough-dried out, and ready for another series of clashes.

The league race is fast drawing to a close, and finds the teams, after long rest, anxious to cross bows against additional encounters and victories.

TALKING MORE SENSE SAYS TEX

Predicts Day of $300,000 Purse Is Passing

NEW YORK, July 17.—Fight promoters are beginning to talk more sense and less noise every day.

Tex Rickard, the promoter, says the day of $200,000 purses passed with the fiasco out in Shelby, Montana, remembered by some as the scene of one bout or other between one Jack Dempsey and Mr. Thomas Gibbons.

He insists to add, however, in the next breath, that "around New York," there may be some daredevil promoter who will try to offer somebody that much, but he expresses doubt as to whether it will ever be paid.

The 50,000 crowd at the Dempsey-Carpenter affair, which stirred up more interest in this country than any previous sporting event, will also remain the peak in attendance for some time to come, Rickard believes.

The Shelby affair seemed to awaken everyone in the fight game to the fact that fighters were getting too much money.

Dempsey is the only one who pulled out of the fight with enough money to buy a shotgun. Everyone else lost. Jack got $220,000, and the consensus of opinion is that was plenty.

Rickard showed his genius for promotion when he got Firpo and Willard into the ring for a percentage of the gate. He is not talking six figures to anyone, nowadays, without knowing what he is talking about.

The $200,000 Dempsey received would keep an ordinary man in luxury for a lifetime.

There have been arranged what the fighters call "bunch fights" all over the country, for one charitable cause or another. The only thing that clarifies it gets out of these fights is what is left over after the fighters get their purses.

Of course, no one is going to say that a fighter should not make a living. Rickards are making $12 a day, and they may be worth it. Some fighters are getting purses in six figures and they may be worth it, probably not.

But somehow or another, Eugene Crippl, the featherweight champion of the world, who never cashed any of these big purses, is finding time enough to go to France and fight for the disabled soldiers, and he is not taking a centime.

SHARE HONORS

NEW YORK, July 17.—The New York and Chicago Nationals divided a double-header here, the Cubs winning the first game 7 to 4, and the Giants the second 5 to 1. Chicago won the first game through Kautzman's splendid pitching. Between games Assistant Manager Hugh Jennings of New York was presented with a gold police badge, signifying that he had been named an honorary member of the police force of New Rochelle, N. Y.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

So Nick stepped up on one of the Tootsie's feet and shook hands.

The Twins couldn't help smiling when Mister Sky-Bow took them to the place where the Tootsies lived. For the Tootsies were folk with enormous feet, although the rest of them were quite small.

"How do you do?" said one of the Tootsies, holding out his hand to shake hands.

"I'm pretty well, thank you," answered Nick, "but I can't shake hands with you because I can't get near enough. Perhaps if you stand sideways I could."

"Oh, that's all right," said the Tootsie. "Step right on."

So Nick stepped up on one of the Tootsie's feet and shook hands. No did Nancy.

"It's too bad!" said Nick. "It certainly is," said Nick. "What about?" demanded the Tootsie.

"About your feet."

"What about my feet?"

"That they're so large," said the Tootsie.

"Ho, ho, ho! That's a fine joke!" answered the Tootsie.

"Why, just think of it, when we go skating we can't fall, when we go walking we never get tired, we can't square our ankles for our feet never turn over, and our shoes are so big we sleep in them at night. Besides when we go barefooted in the wet grass, think how good it feels."

"But what do you do when they get cold?" asked Nancy. "There's so much of them to ache!"

"All the more to stamp around with," answered the Tootsies. "And think what fun we have sliding."

"No matter what you say they will see the happy side," said Mister Sky-Bow. "But come now. We must go to another place."

PADDED ARMY PAYROLLS LATEST MEXICAN GRAFT

MEXICO CITY, Mex., July 17.—A huge graft system has been formed by a number of officers of the army, according to reports received by the secretary of the treasury.

Under the system the nation is being defrauded of thousands of pesos, it is stated.

Officers are placing false names on the rolls as their soldiers and are pocketing the salary sent to pay these fictitious soldiers, it is claimed. Investigation is being made.

MARKETS

NEW YORK, July 17.—After an early reaction which found a number of the leaders a point or more under Monday's close, stocks on the stock exchange today were steady and recorded most of their losses. Subsequently, however, they were active and closed at higher levels than the previous close.

The market reaction was similar to those of recent sessions. Unsettled conditions in the wheat market induced the selling of stocks well taken in a decline. Bears were not willing to follow up their advantage, leaving the market in a state of indecision. The stock market has been entirely liquid since the early week.
